“The mind is not a vessel to be filled, but a fire to be kindled.” Said Plutarch. Cradled in the lap of nature on the one hand and aesthetic edifice on the other, swaying from serious thinking to playful inventiveness, nearly 2,600 students are brimming with a zeal for life empowering themselves with skills and creativity. I appreciate every student who shared the joy of participation in co-curricular and extracurricular activities along with their commitment to curriculum. LAUREOLA is a platform that is being used to showcase the talents of our students. That little extra we do, is the icing on the cake. ‘Do more than belong – participate. Do more than care – help. Do more than believe – practice. Do more than be fair – be kind. Do more than forgive – forget. Do more than dream – work.’ Just as our mother earth gives us more and more, Sahrdaya College of Advanced Studies will enable our learners to give and get a little more of learning. On this occasion I congratulate the entire team for bringing out the tri-monthly magazine and hope that this will be an inspiration for the future generations to come.

“You are already equipped with everything you need to manifest your own greatness.” —Germany Kent

Sahrdaya strives to excel in academic and extra-curricular activities. This issue glances at the bustling life within the campus. There are lots of activities going on—academic and non-academic. Make use of all the opportunities provided by participating and excelling. Winning alone is not what matters but coming forward and involving yourselves in competitions is what makes you a better person. Manifest the excellence already in you by performing well in academics and also in the arts and sports arena. Realize the qualities God has bestowed on you and try to accomplish those with the interventions done by the college. I congratulate the efforts taken by the editorial board in releasing this newsletter.
