Executive Director's Desk

It is delightful to note that Sahrdaya College of Advanced Studies is blessed with four ingredients for success, namely discipline, quality education, an environment enriched by the sports & cultural activities and a serene & tranquil atmosphere. For years, this success recipe has benefited our students and shaped their minds.

The college tri-monthly newsletter serves as a platform to exhibit the hidden talents of the Students and Faculty that reflects their literary and emotional contribution in terms the freedom of expression. This issue of Laureola showcases the immense talents of students and staff. Our students have won several accolades in university and national levels.

Let us hope that the Institution will grow further with the divine blessings of the Good Lord and we all will be successful in achieving our goal.

I take this opportunity to congratulate the entire team of SCAS for bringing out the newsletter and continue inspiring our young talents.
