

BISHOPS MESSAGE

It gives me immense pleasure to facilitate the volume 6 issue 2 of Laureola, the tri-monthly newsletter from SCAS. True to its motto "Ever to Excel", Sahrdaya has been relentlessly pursuing excellence, steadily advancing from good to better and from better to the best, since its inception.

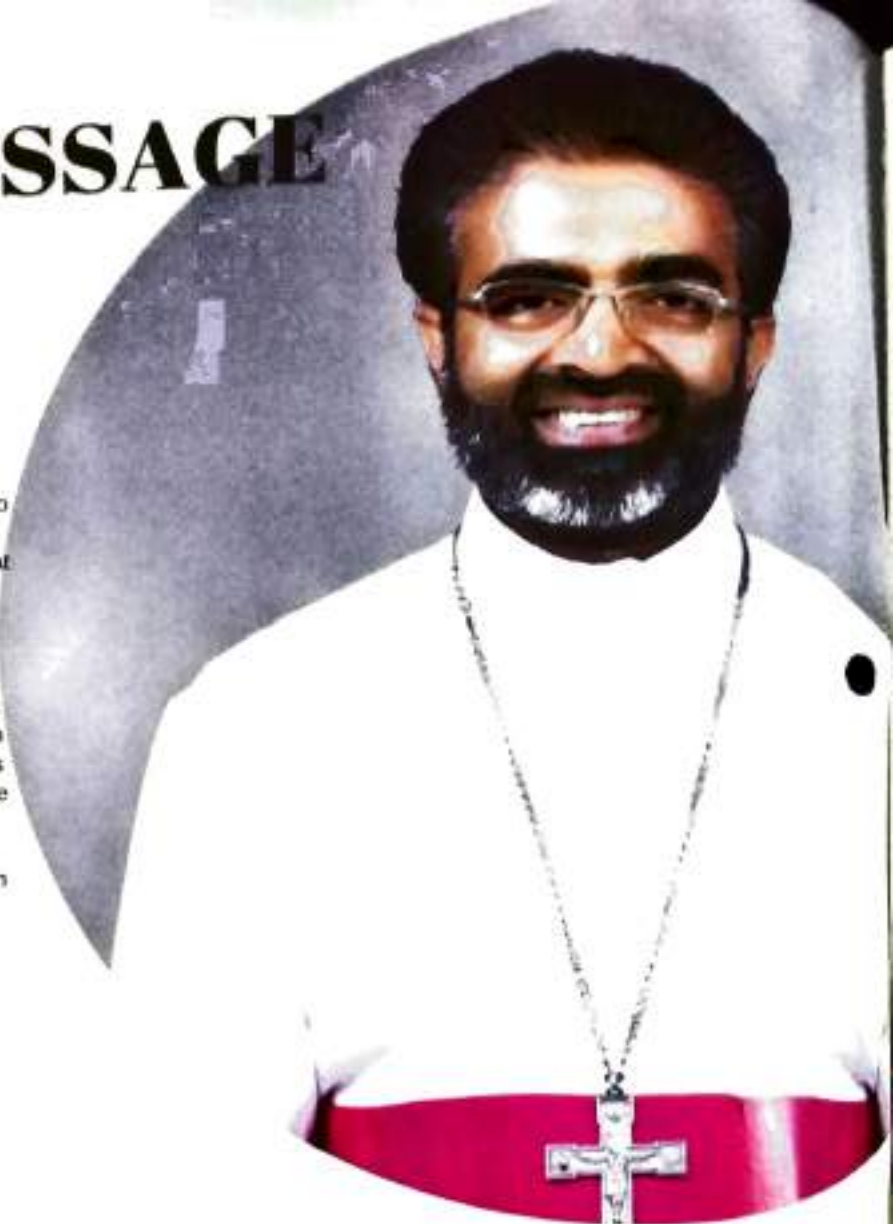

As the college is making its name known far and wide, I would like to place on record my sincere appreciation to the Executive Director, Principal, Vice Principal, staff and students, for daring to dream big and teaming up with the real spirit of oneness and enthusiasm, to materialize dreams. It is this synergized spirit that fuels the steadfast progress of the institution.

Education becomes complete only when it stimulates today's thinking minds to become tomorrow's reformers, capable of providing transformational leadership to the multitudes who look upon them. The world is in dire need of quality individuals, much more than qualified individuals. Sahrdaya attempts to bridge this gap, through our unique, well laid plans and practices. I hope the kind of values we impart, coupled with the disciplined training, will result in shaping tomorrow's reformers, in every sphere of life. Let us stay focused on our mission of moulding great human beings.

Blessings and Best Wishes
