EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Laureola is a glimpse of Sahrdayan victories and celebrations. 2019-20 has witnessed beautiful moments and memories. But at the end of this academic year we are experiencing a difficult time. Amidst the untimely closure of the college in March 2020 due to the pandemic outbreak, students faced negative impact in the academic learning and exposures. Nevertheless, remember the essence of all education is facing challenges by converting them into opportunities. Bernie Siegel says, "Embrace each challenge in your life as an opportunity for self-transformation." In Lockdown and quarantine, we lost communal and family get together, events indefinitely postponed, sports seasons called off, the curtains drawn on college life, cancelling all celebrations—including those that mark personal milestones and achievements. But in a way, celebrations are needed now more than ever to lift our spirits and give all of us hope for a brighter tomorrow. "Celebrate endings – for they precede new beginnings," says Jonathan LockwookHuie. At this juncture of despair hoping for a good beginning in the academic year 2020-21
