EXE. DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Sahridaya soars high. We move ahead boldly chanting our college anthem, for this is a moment of enjoyment and fulfillment!

This edition of Laureola showcases precious moments of college life, the most memorable being the yearly convocation.

Convocation, a unique event which culminates in one's academic excellence, is also a celebration of the accomplishments of students with the approval of the University. It is a great honour and validation received, elevating a student in his/her community.

In a higher education institution, it is also the fulfillment of hardships of Faculty members, staff members and the Management. I'm sure that the words of appreciation received from friends, family and members of college will motivate the students to achieve even greater heights of success.

The words ringing around the ceremonial hall goes on "What an impressive achievement! This is a day of immense pride!"

Happy Graduation Day!

Wishing you the very best for all your future endeavours.

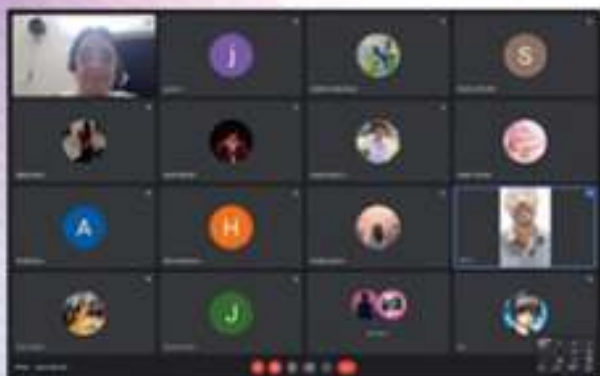

Rev. Dr. Devis Chenginiyadan
Executive Director
